The President's Message

Friends:

Another year, another step to cement our advanced enduring stature. If a club climbs but one each year, it has crystalized a goal for posterity. The success of last year's calendared programming reads like league teamwork. It was not an accident, but genial accord and detailed organization. Not a single project defaulted. The coming season will be no disappointment.

There is nothing new in the world, atom was a word 2,000 years ago, but past experiences teach the paths to pursue, the present to be our doing, the future for plans to materialize.

Each member represents a milestone in allegiance, is a design in Fort Wayne's affiliation with the Woman's Club. No one walks alone, succeeds alone, no one alone knows everything. Therefore, a successful association has complete and competent committees, members chosen carefully from their respective fields, sympathetic to specific details.

A very great deal of work is the compilation of our club's annual yearbook. Enjoy it. Keep it close at hand. It contains the names, addresses and telephone numbers of your friends, your co-workers, your hosts, your entertaining guests, your pleasure for eight months. We enjoy you. We hope you enjoy us.

FERNE B. McDOWELL

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

(Right hand over heart, standing at attention)

I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America, and to the Republic for which it stands; one nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

Collect for Club Women

(all standing)

Keep us, O God, from pettiness; let us be large in thought, in word, in deed.

Let us be done with fault finding and leave off self-seeking.

May we put away all pretense and meet each other face to face without self-pity, and without prejudice.

May we never be hasty in judgment and always generous.

Let us take time for all things; and make us grow calm, serene and gentle.

Teach us to put into action our better impulses, straightforward and unafraid.

Grant that we may realize it is the little things that create differences; that in the big things of life we are at one.

And may we strive to touch and to know the great, common human heart of us all. And, O Lord God, let us forget not to be kind.

—MARY STEWART.

Who's Who On Our Program

(Listed Alphabetically)

ELGEE BOVE

"The human personality is like a diamond, and the clothes are the setting." Out of this philosophy and his vast experience as a leading designer, Elgee Bove demonstrates how a woman can look her best always—without being a millionairess.

Creator of many of the "goddess" images of Hollywood—he designed for such stars as Kim Novak, Rita Hayworth, Ava Gardner and Marilyn Monroe—Elgee Bove is an American who comes from a long line of French couturiers.

Today he is using his experiences in films, on stage and TV to create more glamorous, "attention-getting" clothes for the average woman. He believes this is the look most women really want.

Using models from our club, Elgee Bove will illustrate his talk with a collection of his own Original Creations. He will give a spontaneous demonstration in draping.

MARIO BRAGGIOTTI

Perhaps a good word to describe Mario Braggiotti's one-man show of flawless piano playing plus humorous commentary and anecdotes is completeness in program. He manages to stir every facet of the audience's interest through classical music, popular music, satire, pantomime, mimicry, continental innuendos, comedy improvisation and a little wisdom.

His program is like an elaborate menu: the hot, the cold, the delicate, the strong, the sweet, the sour, and the inebriating.

TOM BUCK

A many-sided man, Tom Buck—in addition to being the father of eleven children and the author of "But Daddy"—has had a career of 15 years in journalism and is currently active in keeping the public informed through all media of the potentialities of outer space.

Former magazine executive of "McCall's," "Life" and "Look," Tom Buck has had articles published in the "Ladies' Home Journal" as well as in leading popular and scientific publications here and abroad.

GEOFFREY BOCCA

Geoffrey Bocca is primarily a best-selling author, but also he has been a sailor, parachutist, correspondent, actor and professional soccer player.

For fourteen years he lived on the Italian and the French Rivièras. His present house is situated between Nice and Cannes, where he has watched various jet sets come and go: The Aga Khan, Ira Von Furstenberg, Rubirosa have been among his house guests. The Riviera changes constantly and yet remains the greatest resort today, the heartbeat of the swinging world.

Geoffrey Bocca's subject, "The Jet Set", promises to be an excitingly different program.

MARY CLIVER

Mary Ellison Cliver, television and radio book reviewer, will present her feature program, "Alice in Womanland, or The Feminine Mistake."

Mary Cliver's presentation is a series of humorous sketches of the life of modern women, using excerpts from the lives and loves of contemporary women "famous, infamous, and not famous at all."

She has been featured on her own radio show, "The Mary Cliver Coffee Break," and has made several appearances as a guest on NBC's "Today Show."

ROBERT DAVIS

Imaginative photographer, accomplished narrator, guide and film producer—he superbly edits each film to produce a memorable experience: informing, entertaining, and stimulating.

Achieve new perspectives of "INCREDIBLE ICELAND" as you travel with Robert Davis by plane, boat, jeep, and afoot, exploring the many faces of this enchanting island. Here is escape to the most "fantabulous" island imaginable.

NEIL DOUGLAS

An explorer-adventurer and expert photographer-film producer, whose expeditions have taken him from exploding volcanoes to the top of the Alps, from thundering glaciers to within the Iron Curtain—he is a former All-American on Lafayette College's national championship football team.

Neil Douglas, the producer and narrator of this film, "Austria—For All Seasons," is a noted writer and is listed in the "Who's Who Of Science."

The charming Neil Douglas has received many honors for his fine films.

COLETTE D'ORSAY

She is a graduate of Dwight School, Briarcliff and Bard College. She also studied at the Sorbonne in Paris and the Institut des Haute Etudes des Sciences Politiques.

It was during her student days abroad that she began to accumulate the extensive personal travel experience that goes into her work today. Upon returning to the United States, she wrote the "Where-to Shop" column for "Harper's Magazine."

Her lecture will be presented in a unique manner. While describing "Caribbea—Playground Of The Western World," we will go along on a visit to eight islands, via color film.

OTIS L. GUERNSEY, JR.

Otis L. Guernsey is both the "Mr. Inside" and the "Mr. Outside" of the Broadway theater. On the inside he is the editor of "The Dramatists Guild Quarterly," a magazine published by and for America's playwrights, librettists, composers and lyricists.

On the outside, he is the critic who speaks the last word on each New York theater season in its entirety. He writes and edits the annual Best Plays volumes.

In addition, Mr. Guernsey is serving on the committee which selects the Tony nominations—the five "bests" in various categories of acting, writing, direction and design.

PATRICIA GUINAN

The lovely and talented Patricia Guinan, Assistant to the Publisher of "House Beautiful," invites you to hear her outstanding lecture entitled, "Personality Decorating."

As former editor of "Bride & Home" magazine, Mrs. Guinan was deeply involved with the young market and was particularly interested in showing the new homemaker how to furnish her home with more taste than money.

She was the winner of the coveted Dorothy Dawe Award for Distinguished Journalistic Coverage in the Home Furnishings Industry.

NATHAN CABOT HALE

Nathan Cabot Hale is a leading figure sculptor who continues the cycle of life tradition begun by Rodin and Vigeland. He has pioneered the development of the welded bronze medium.

His lectures reflect his individuality. He has worked in many different styles and in many different mediums before he developed his humanistic direction. He is able to view the artists and art forms with warmth and wit.

All of Mr. Hale's lectures are given with color slides presentations of his subject.

An exhibition of Mr. Hale's work which includes sculpture, drawings, watercolors and a demonstration of his remarkable techniques of welding sculpture will be on display the day of his lecture. A demonstration of his welding sculpture will take place the day of his lecture.

VIRGINIA WOODRUFF

Here is a talk as up-to-date as tomorrow's headlines—but with a great deal more human interest! It's news—but with a woman's touch.

"Why not?" says tall, vivacious Virginia Woodruff. "The world of newscasting is no longer persona non grata to women."

Certainly not to this whirlwind redhead, whose energy and drive netted her the accolade of being one of only a dozen women accredited to the Paris peace talk coverage.

ANNUAL REPORT OF AMERICAN HOME DEPARTMENT

The American Home Department opened its club year with a luncheon and bridge in October, 1968.

We served as general chairman of the club's two Christmas luncheons, December 5 and 12, 1968.

The department gave $25.00 to the Allen County League for the Blind, Inc. We also held a sale of goods made by the Blind. This project netted $299.12.

Our annual meeting on February 25, 1969, was attended by eighty-eight (88) members and guests, who were entertained with a fashion Accessory Show arranged by Mrs. Lowell Redding, program chairman. The show was given by L. S. Ayres Co. Commentary was done by Mrs. Anita Baldwin, their fashion coordinator and public relations director.

On March 27, 1969, American Home Department sponsored a special bridge for the benefit and pleasure of all club members.

April 10, 1969, was our sponsored day with Madhur Jaffrey, an Indian actress giving her program on "A Thousand and One Nights". Following the luncheon, bridge was played.

Eight new members were added to the department.

ANNUAL REPORT — 1968-1969

LITERATURE AND EDUCATION DEPARTMENT

The Literature and Education Department began the year in November with an autumn brunch. Miss Blanche Hutto, talented artist, gave a very interesting program on the treasures and culture of Peru, South America.

The Department's philanthropy fund was fifty dollars. Twenty-five dollars from the General Club and twenty-five from the Department. The project included four Federation contributions and one for Needlework Guild.

The American Home Department was general chairman of the Christmas luncheons. Our responsibility was to provide the music.

The January meeting had Mr. Reid Chapman, WKJG-TV manager, whose subject was, "Am I My Brother's Keeper?"

We had the election of officers at our February luncheon. Mrs. Richard Baach reviewed the book, "Everything But Money" by Sam Levenson.

February 13 was our sponsored day featuring Mr. Norman Nadel, drama critic, who reviewed current New York plays. 304 persons were served at the luncheon and there were thirty tables for bridge and tea.

The Department had four new members. There were three deceased members this year. Mrs. Feagles asked to become an absentee member.

ANNUAL REPORT OF JUNIOR DEPARTMENT

The Junior Department opened its Club year in November. The chairman of the other Departments of the Club were our main speakers. They described the functions and activities of their respective departments.

The Annual Meeting was held February 13, 1969 with thirty-nine members in attendance. Mrs. G. A. McDowell was our guest speaker. Her topic was "Safari African Style." During her presentation, Mrs. McDowell showed films of her African expedition and adventures.

The program for the April meeting was presented by Mrs. Demos Gallender, a home-economics teacher. Her topic was "Aging Gracefully."

The Department contributed twenty dollars to the Johnny Appleseed School for teaching materials to be used in pre-school classes. Five dollars was also contributed to the Muscatatuck Chapel for Retarded Children.

Fifteen new members were welcomed into the Department.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE RECORDING SECRETARY

1968-1969

Mrs. George McDowell was elected President of the Fort Wayne Woman's Club to serve the 44th club year, and she has guided the club efficiently and effectively. All regular Board meetings and meetings of the Executive Board were presided over by Mrs. McDowell, and she has acted on all club business with the Board. Her presence and active interest in general club functions and department activities was evident.

We are happy to have the new Junior Department members enter into the club activities this year.

All officers performed their required duties realizing well that it is the leadership of a club that helps make a successful club year. Department chairmen carried out activities as listed in the yearbook. The untiring efforts of chairmen of standing and special committees helped make a good club year.

Our financial records are in good order. The registrar reported a membership of 862. Our goal is 1,000 membership.

Highlighting the club year were the varied and interesting programs presented Thursday mornings, and many outstanding personalities were included. To keep members informed as well as entertained, Mrs. Gaylord presented twenty-three varied programs which included: art, drama, world events, music, literature, religion, travel films, fashion, theatre, finance, and architecture. Two very different programs were the one on extra-sensory perception and the one on hypnotism.

Guests and members of the club were greeted by the Door and Guest Ticket chairmen. Our Thursday luncheons were well attended. Beautiful decorations were provided for general club functions by the Decorations chairman. Social functions were made most enjoyable under the leadership of Mrs. Tainer. Tribute was paid the past Presidents at the Anniversary Luncheon. The Fine Arts Department maintained the art exhibits in our auditorium under the direction of Mrs. Gerberding.

The work of the Project Committee was evident in the two European trips planned for this summer, the Chicago trip, and the New York theatre trip. To add to our income, place mats, cook books, and note paper were sold.

Something new has been added this year in classes. The response and enthusiasm for our yoga class under the direction of Mrs. Blackburn has been wonderful. Not only did the class have guest day in April, but for the first time the Fort Wayne Woman's Club made the Roto section of the paper. Yoga class members were the subjects for two pages of a recent issue. Other classes included bowling, painting, and a book discussion group. The Thursday afternoon bridges sponsored by departments have been well attended.

Publicity of club activities has been excellent thanks to the efforts of Mrs. Baxter. The Government Affairs Chairman has kept the board informed on world and legislative affairs.

In addition to the philanthropic contributions of the seven departments of the club, contributions were made to the Scholarship Fund of the Art School, Red Cross, American Cancer Society, Heart Fund, and United Fund.

The Board of Trustees and Furnishings Committee have been busy. New acoustical tile has been installed in the dining room to lessen the noise. The House Committee supervised cleaning of the club rooms. The Personnel Committee has seen that the club was well staffed at all times. The library has been enriched with a copy of Andrew Wyeth's art book.

The Federation chairman served as chairman of the Federation Breakfast in November at which Mrs. Thomas Houde, General Federation of Women's Clubs Chairman of Community Improvement Program, was speaker. Through the efforts of Mrs. Dunifon we have participated in Federation projects. We received seven Certificates of achievement at the Allen County Convention of Federated Clubs.

The detailed reports of various officers and chairmen of committees will be printed in the yearbook. Please read them.

To all who have given of their time and talents to make the year a success, the club gives a special note of thanks.

Marjorie Bonner,
Recording Secretary

BOARD OF TRUSTEES, 1968-1969

The Trustees met in two regular meetings as prescribed in the by-laws, and in two called meetings.

During the summer, steel shelves for holding supplies were put in the kitchen. Also last summer, working with the Furnishing Committee, accoustical tile was installed in the dining room.

The Furnishing Committee and the Trustees have cooperated in planning a complete rennovation of the powder room and lavatory, with contracts signed so work should be completed by fall.

The insurance policies of the Club were reviewed and the finances discussed.

Three new trustees have been elected by the Board of Directors to replace those who are retiring. The new trustees are Mrs. Forrest Fitch, Mrs. John Rahrer and Miss Mary Price. The retiring trustees are Mrs. Robert Bradtmiller, Mrs. W. M. Kellogg and Mrs. Ralph W. Elston.

New officers for the Board of Trustees who have been elected are Mrs. Clyde Reed, chairman and Mrs. Russell Erb, secretary.

REPORT FOR CLASSES, 1968-1969

Six different classes were set up this year and the schedule announced at the first club meeting — and each succeeding meeting.

They were Elementary Bridge—Duplicate Bridge—Painting—Bowling—Book Discussions—and Yoga.

Both bridge classes were cancelled because of very poor registration.

The Bowling Group had its usual contingent of very enthusiastic members—and met every Wednesday morning—under the chairmanship of Mrs. Philip Clark.

Mrs. Coblenz gave eight enlightening lessons to the Painting Group—which met each Monday Morning. Mrs. Robert L. Martin was co-ordinator. An exhibit of their work was held at the club April 17th.

The Book Discussion Group had a very small attendance. Mrs. Clyde Reed gave a very interesting review of "True Gift".

The Yoga class was an instant success. The membership was limited to 25, because of the facilities available. The classes were under the leadership of our own qualified club member, Mrs. Herbert F. Blackburn. Classes were held every Monday morning from January 6th to April 28th, and faithfully attended. The club members were invited to attend the meeting on April 28th.

Mrs. Quincy D. Baldwin, Chairman
